Description

Lovely late 18th.c. oak box settle c.1780. Very nearly six feet long, it is a little larger than many we see. High backrest with three large raised and fielded panels with a moulded detail to the frame. Simple shaped arms on square front stiles. Seat with one long board with iron hinges lifts to reveal useful storage below for boots and shoes etc. Front panels below the seat raised and fielded to match the backrest. Flat panel sides and rear, oak floor boards. Great colour and character – note the old burn to the left hand lower panel which seems to have led to some reshaping of the edge of the seat above. Excellent condition, sympathetically restored cleaned and waxed in our workshops. Dimensions: width 70", depth 19", height 51".
