Description

Fine mid C18th George II Chippendale period mahogany gaming table . Fold-over top baize-lined gaming or card table raised on carved cabriole fore-legs with well-carved bold acanthus leaf decoration onto a carved 'ball-and-claw' foot . The fold-over top of shaped 'break-front' form with polished candle-stick rests to the interior . The base of the frieze with a carved gadrooned mould to the front and side returns, and fitted with a central oak-lined drawer retaining its original cast brass patinated rococo design handle . The back legs of slender cabriole form with lappet carved knees onto a pad foot. The reverse fitted with a single gate-leg action to support the fold-over top . The interior benefitting from having had a quality felt baize lining replacement approximately 25 years ago . In excellent original condition with a good colour and patina . The figured mahogany top having achieved a wonderful mellow patination. Possibly Irish . H 29" W 30" D 16" England c. 1750
