Description

An 18th century fruitwood and mahogany wine or lamp table. The pretty scalloped shaped top contrasts beautifully with the vase and gun barrel pedestal. The colour and patina are very good, there is evidence of historic restoration to one of the tripod legs, this has been well done and is not evident. The table stands evenly and securely. A very decorative and versatile antique table, its small proportions make it easy to place in any setting. c. 1800 Diameter: 15.5" 39.5 cm Height: 27" 68.5 cm
