Description

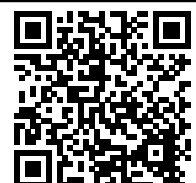

A neatly proportioned early 19th century antique oak coffer or blanket box with hinged sunken panel lid, revealing a papered interior with candle box to the left-hand side, two panel front with diamond carved detail, iron lock plate with decorative carved detailing to either side, raised on stile feet. Item Ref; M-1814 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 54cm / Width – 120cm / Depth – 48cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age and wear. General surface wear throughout including some age-related marks to the top and front (pictured), but overall, good. The hinges appear original. Some evidence of old historic wood worm in places – this is long gone and has been fully treated as a precaution. Structurally solid and sound. The lock plate is purely decorative now and there is no working lock or key. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores all our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us is home ready! Please take time to carefully look at all the photos as they form part of the description and condition report of this item. . DELIVERY INFORMATION: Cost:
