Description

A smart and top quality antique Victorian solid walnut desk, dating from around the 1880-90's period. It is really well made and is a lovely size. The colour and grain patterns are gorgeous throughout. This sits on bracket feet and has the original brass handles. It also breaks down into three pieces for ease of transport. The drawers are all graduated in depth & all have locks. The backs of the pedestals are panelled & this desk looks smart on the back too. We have had this recently French polished, the top has also been newly leathered with hand tooled gold edges; the condition is excellent for its age.
