Description

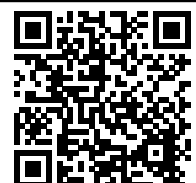

A fine example of 19th-century "orientalist" Fantasy design. This superb piece comes complete with the "original" clock stand and GLASS DOME. This clock is in absolutely original condition with no losses to the enamel, which remains as bright as the day it was made. The domes to these clocks are invariably missing, therefore the clock requires cleaning, which occasions wear to the gilt and enamel. Having been preserved under the dome this clock is a rare find. It would compliment any collection, and grace a variety of rooms in the finest of homes. For further Clocks of interest you may wish to visit our website
