Description

Super early 18th century Queen Anne period walnut and oak single drawer side table. The turned legs and under-stretchers are all oak, everything else is walnut. This is exactly how it was made, it hasn't been later altered. The three plank walnut top is a gorgeous colour with super patination. The oak turnings to the base are very pleasing. The drawer has its original iron lock with probably later brass drop handles. The drawer has been re-lined in Victorian times which is not unusual for these tables. Altogether this is a very nice example showing particularly good colour and patination. SIZE; 32 1/2" wide by 21" deep by 29" high CIRCA; 1700 - 1720
