Description

This really clean and tidy Edwardian Chest of Drawers is truly a pleasure to look at and really useful for its storage. In Great condition in all ways, both inside and out with its original brass handles all intact and in place. The drawer fronts are inlaid as can be seen in the pictures and really set this chest apart from most other examples. Very sensible price in this condition and for this quality, note the super detail even in the skirt which is shaped in the centre leading to the bracket feet in each corner. Carries a small brass plaque from the original retailer in Shrewsbury in the very early 1900s. Delivery can be arranged with specialist carrier for £60/70 to most areas if required or it can of course be collected from Knutsford. Give us a call if you would like to discuss
