Description

For your consideration is this very good quality and extremely attractive Art Deco mantle clock made in Germany and dating to the 1930's by Thomas Haller. The casing is the real hero of this timepiece, great size with nicely figured walnut veneered dial with Art Deco styling inlay. All finished off with silvered dial, chrome bezel and feet. The movement strikes on the hour and the half hour and is operated by its original key and pendulum. We've had this clock professionally serviced this and so comes to you in good working condition keeping excellent time. We've also had the exterior of the clock polished so also in great condition. FREE UK DELIVERY, USA £55 EUROPE £45 About Haller The beginnings of Haller company go back to 1874 in Germany and the clock company still exists today and within the same family. Since 2005, the grandson of the company took over.
