Description

For your consideration is this wonderful Art Deco Art Deco skyscraper Solid Silver Cased Easel Desk Clock with a French Movement. A stunning clock in excellent working condition having been recently and professionally serviced. Wonderful Deco stretched numerals and stepped casing and if that wasn't enough it comes with a beautiful piece of history and engraving to the case. The solid silver mount is made by Henry Matthews in 1930. It's engraved to the top with "Presented to the Hon. Mrs I.J.Pitman" and on the bottom with "By the students of the Walsall Commercial College, 30th November 1932" Mrs Pitman was married to Isaac James Pitman, there is more information on him below. Provenance and History of Sir Isaac James Pitman Sir Isaac James Pitman, KBE (14 August 1901 – 1 September 1985) was a British businessman, civil servant, publisher, politician and spelling reformer. Sir James was vitally concerned with the teaching of children to write the English language. His analysis of the teaching of handwriting to students, both in school by professional teachers, and at home by parents has several strong pedagogical theories in its intellectual background. Along with ...
