Description

HISTORY OF JAMES PLUNCKETT. Having had various partners in his company, operated as a sole trader from 1886-1905, the year of his death. He advertised his work as 'manufacturers of rich carved furniture', ...
