Description

A very handsome and unusual Victorian inkwell made from heavy cut crystal and mounted with sterling silver. The top is mounted with a pen rack or rest made to hold two dip pens (pen for photographic purposes only and not included in this sale). The silver of the rim and hinged lid are hallmarked for London 1896 together with the makers mark for the highly sought-after Mappin Brothers. The inkwell retains the small glass liner which is removable and of course makes it easy for re-filling and cleaning.
