Description

Victorian inlaid walnut workbox card table This Victorian inlaid walnut workbox card table was made circa 1870. Tables of this type were in the homes of the professional classes. Card games and embroidery were important pastimes in Victorian England and so these high-quality tables were placed in areas where visitors and friends would visit, and the owners wanted to show their wealth by having the best quality on the market. The inlaid swivel top opens to reveal a baize lined playing area. Underneath is a sliding box lined in its original material for storage for sewing materials. 69cms wide 27ins 41cms deep 16ins 79cms high 24ins All Measurements are approximate, whilst we take care in measuring there may at times be a very slight difference. Delivery We can arrange free delivery to UK mainland; we also have a reliable and good delivery service for single or multiple items to Ireland. We can also obtain a quote for items to be shipped overseas. This Victorian inlaid walnut workbox card table is a very green product and has not damaged our environment.
