Description

An impressive William IV mahogany compactum wardrobe, circa 1830-40, the central bank of five graduated drawers with foliate top cresting, flanked by a pair of architectural panelled wardrobe doors with stepped pediments, the interiors with original hanging pegs and a hanging bar, raised on plinth base. The top drawer has an adapted front to enable it to drop forward making it easier to see the contents. In very good condition and of good colour. Some small edge chipping in places but very good overall.
