Description

Fabulous 1930's Art Deco female shop mannequin. Out of all the mannequins we've ever had although this one isn't in the best of condition she's without doubt one of the most attractive and has a lot appeal for anyone who has a soft spot for either mannequins or Art Deco. She's in good vintage condition with the usual bumps and bruises one would expect but no serious damage. She's a great size and would be a genuine asset to any collection for dressing tables or a prop for a dealer / retail display. Typical hair style of the day with crimped waving which is complimented by her make-up which has been expertly applied in Deco pastel tones, all original. Her eyes are particularly well painted and she looks beautiful at every angle. Surprisingly light when you consider the size of her. She's made from hollow plaster, she's very sturdy when stood up.
