Description

A stunning substantial 19th century Anglo-Indian rosewood table with exceptional carving depicting bands of figures, elephants, flowers and foliate. The carved table sits on four finely carved scroll elephant head legs, each boasting finely carved decoration. There are signs of historic sympathetic repairs to four of the elephant ears (please see photographs) but this in no way affects the aesthetics of the piece. The table remains in an excellent condition overall. The legs remain firm and the table sits perfectly thus. This really is a superb example of 19th century Anglo-Indian craftsmanship. Dimensions: Length - 92cm, Width - 45.5cm, Height - 61cm. Weight: 18kg. DELIVERY We use trusted couriers for UK and international delivery.
