Description

A good example of a small antique glazed dresser dating from the late 19th century. The base has two drawers, each with white ceramic knobs, above two cupboard doors that open to a shelved interior. The top part of the dresser has two glazed cupboard doors opening to reveal a white painted interior with two generous sized shelves. It splits into two parts for transport and can be fixed together with two small screws. It is in good original condition throughout and is a clean sturdy piece of furniture. It has been thoroughly cleaned and has a nice smooth waxed finish. It is not without some signs of age and use but nothing detrimental. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers.
