Description

A fine William and Mary period figured walnut escritoire, concealing eight secret drawers, C.1690-1700. The eight secret drawers are most entertaining, hidden in various ways throughout the interior. The cross-grain moulded cornice, over a cushion moulded drawer, below the quarter veneered feather and crossbanded fall which opens to reveal an extensive arrangement of figured walnut book-matched drawers and pigeon holes with a central cupboard opening to a further four drawers within. A cross-grain waist moulding separates the two parts of the piece with an arrangement of two short over two long feather banded, oak-lined drawers, with engraved and shaped lock escutcheons and drop handles. The sides are beautifully book-matched in figured walnut.
