Description

A stunning sterling silver three piece cruet set comprising of a pepperette, salt cellar and mustard pot by Ernest Druiff & Co, dated 1925. The set remains in an excellent condition externally with clear hallmarks and original sterling silver salt spoon by the same maker of the same year. The mustard spoon is a later addition and hallmarked for silver maker Richard & Knight of Birmingham, dated 1988. Internally, the set boasts original blue glass liners. The mustard pot liner shows evidence of previous repair (please see photographs). The salt cellar liner is in excellent condition. A truly lovely cruet set of the Art Deco era.
