A harlequin set of four antique Victorian balloon back kitchen chairs. In various fruitwood they have balloon backs and solid seats and stand on ring turned legs. Quite solid to sit on would make great kitchen or dining chairs. It is a pair and 2 different single chairs which are different colours, but overall a fairly good match. There is a paper label to the underneath of one chair which reads: "Mr Stephenson Wakefield". Construction/Wood: Fruitwood
Condition Report: They have been restored at some point. They are solid and sturdy with wear and marks commensurate with age. Some seats have small splits and one seat rail is missing a small section to the back.
