Description

A beautiful and elegant antique writing bureau in mahogany, dating from the 1890-1910 period. This is of extremely fine quality, it is a lovely slim and useful size. The flame mahogany veneers are striking and have a beautiful colour. The construction is all solid wood with solid oak lined drawers and fine dovetailed joints. This has the original brass pendant handles and a useful work space with pigeon holes and extra interior drawers. We have just had this French polished, it is in great condition for its age.
