Description

This is an antique ceremonial Yoruba chief's stool. A West African, Benin Kingdom hardwood side or lamp table, dating to the late 19th century, circa 1900. Striking West African tribal craftsmanship. Displaying a desirable aged patina - split to top adds to the character. Hand-carved hardwood displays dark russet hues. Ovoid top with rolled edge sits above the whole. Pair of supporting figures stand alongside a grand leopard and cub. Standing upon a hollowed circular base. This is a fascinating antique Yoruba stool. Wonderfully hand-carved, the profile lends itself to being an unusual side or lamp table in the home. Delivered waxed, polished and ready to enjoy.
