Description

A lovely example of a small regency mahogany library table dating from the early 19th Century. It stands on end supports, joined by a delicate turned stretcher with roundels at either end and turned bun feet below the legs. It has a large mahogany lined drawer with its original turned knobs. It is beautifully finished on all four sides of the table, making it suitable as a centre table or side table. It is in excellent condition for its age and has a lovely rich colour. There are some minor signs of age and use but nothing detrimental or untoward. It is a good sturdy table and it displays well. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers.
