Description

English Naive School painting on panel of a fashionable equestrian lady in hunting attire, circa 1830 Signed J Lemon or Lermott. Seated side saddle on a dappled grey hunter, with fine gold and scarlet tasselled saddle cloth. She wears a cream satin lined green velvet riding habit with gigot sleeves, black topper with trailing lace veil. Painted in oils on a wooden panel, the back with glued wooden strips and sacking. Labels on the back indicate this was a 'Coach door panel from the family stable, 19th century' The smart graphic layout styled on an armorial crest, on a green ground lends truth to this testimony. In very good sound condition, tight hairline from the left side, chipped corner. 16,1/2" x 15,1/2" or 42cm x 39.5cm panel thickness 5/16" or 8mm, weight 940 grams.
