A beautiful and high quality antique Victorian cabinet, dating from around the 1860-80 period. This is extremely well made, and has a beautiful combination of burr walnut, ebonised wood and original brass mounts. The attention to detail is gorgeous throughout, there is inlay and cross banding around the edges, the brass work is also very fine quality. There are Corinthian column supports with lovely etched patterns, and this has a locking glass fronted door. We have just had this French polished & is in lovely condition for its age.
