Description

Circa 1900, rare exhibition quality, late Victorian cast brass hall stand. Of substantial size and made with curved brass rods of various gauges, with an unusual shaped over-shelf to the top and surmounted with finials to back. With central rectangular bevelled edge mirror with rounded corners, which is secured by cast brass flower-head screws. This is surrounded by 6 elegant cast brass hooks, over a D-shaped 6 division stick stand and a painted (removable) drip tray with a cast iron base.
