Description

George III oak dresser base This George III oak dresser base was made circa 1800. Made of estate oak with a deal plank pot board where the local joiner would make these for the cottages and houses on the estate. Of usual form with the double set of drawers with the period brass swan neck swing handles and brass escutcheons. This is a desirable dresser that can be used in many places around the home. Imagine how wonderful this will look in your home and the pleasure it will give you as you can show it off to your family and friends. Not only does this provide good storage but also it makes a superb decorative item for the many places it can be placed. 152cms wide 60ins 45cms deep 17 1/2ins 82cms high 32ins All Measurements are approximate, whilst we take care in measuring there may at times be a very slight difference.
