Description

Signed oil on canvas - Amedee Degreeef (1878 - 1968). The painting is mounted in a quality moulded frame and black slip. It is also signed on the rear with the artists signature and what looks like the name of the port - Ostend. It is dated on the front 1927. Amedee Degreeef was born in Auderghem in 1878 and was the son of the celebrated painter Jean-Baptiste Degreeef. Degreeef initially wanted to pursue a musical profession but on the advice of his father, who had recognised his artistic talents, attended the Academy of Brussels. Upon graduating he joined the artistic group, 'Le Sillon' and settled in the outskirts of Brussels. He was a painter of diverse subjects, including landscapes, still life, marines and portraits. Dimensions - 88 cm x 67 cm
