Description

A handsome English sterling silver condiment / cruet set consisting of a mustard pot and spoon, an open salt and spoon and a pepper pot. Beautifully and simply designed in Art Deco style and each piece clearly hallmarked for Birmingham 1947, late Art Deco in era. Lovely quality made from a good gauge of English sterling silver by the well renowned silversmith, Henry Clifford Davis. The mustard and open salt retain the original Bristol blue liners. The set comes complete with its original presentation case signed by the retailer in the interior of the lid. Penlington & Batty were famous for being "Watchmakers to the Admiralty", Watch and Clock Manufacturers and Diamond Merchants at St Georges Crescent, Liverpool, England. The box measuring 9 1/2" x 4 1/2" x 2 3/4". Item: 42978 FREE Worldwide Registered Airmail Directly From the UK
