Description

Robert Thomas Buttery, Fl. 1824-1865 A Prospect of the South Front of Newstead Abbey, Nottinghamshire, from the Park and Lake Newstead Abbey indistinctly signed oil on canvas 50.80 x 76.20 Engraved, 1827 William M Fellows after R T Buttery and published by R T Buttery. The Engraving is Lettered below with the title and a dedication to the present owner Lt Col. Wildman by the artist; with producer names "R T Buttery Pinxit / Mr W M Fellows sc." Along the bottom "Published as the Act Directs, by R.T. Buttery Nottingham, Feby. 26th 1827" Notes The 6th Lord Byron, the Poet sold Newstead Abbey to his old school friend at Harrow, Colonel Thomas Wildman in December 1817, the sale being ratified in 1818, thus breaking the continued ownership of Newstead by the Byron Family for the first time in 263 years. This was an end of an era and the start of a new era of building or virtually the complete rebuilding of Newstead, so that the house we see today is largely his creation. Wildman was well respected in Nottinghamshire during his residency in the county from 1817-1859. The Wildmans were originally from Lancashire. The Wildman family had obtained Quebec Estate, a large sugar p...
