Description

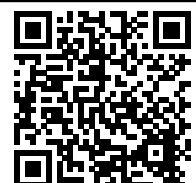

A superb 19th century cast iron garden table, possibly Coalbrookdale. The beaded edged circular top of this table is supported on a tri form pedestal, beautifully cast with rope, floral and scroll design. The base of the table terminates with three swan feet. There is a diamond shaped registration plate to the underside of the base. This highly decorative antique table would be an elegant addition to the garden or conservatory. c. 1890 Diameter: 60 cm Height: 72 cm
