Description

A Good Quality Regency Period Mahogany Bowfronted Side Cabinet, Or Side Cupboard, Having Well Figured Top Over Two Silk Panelled Doors Enclosing Interior Shelves Raised On Elegant Turned Tapering Feet (Both elegant and functional this side cabinet would sit happily in many a dining room, living room or even hallway. With a good amount of interior storage concealed behind recently reupholstered panel doors its a great way of keeping everyday items easily accessible whilst also tucked out of the way. It retains an excellent rich colour and overall the condition is good. It comes with key and is a jolly useful piece of furniture. Of course the bowfronted feature is quite an unusual and certainly adds a whole other level of elegance to the overall feel of the item.) Circa 1820 Height - 41in Width - 33.5in Depth - 19in
