Description

This is a great looking and well made 19th century French country bench. Known as a Breton bench which is made in the Finistere Brittany region. The wear is superb and gives this piece a real charm and character which would work well in a number of spaces. No major faults. The detailed back is what sold the piece to me as it has so much work involved and quite different to other benches. Height 107cm Width 126cm Depth 48cm Depth of seat 38cm Height of seat 49cm
