Description

Omega Seamaster DE VILLE stainless steel manual winding wristwatch, reference 135.020, circa 1962, in very good all original condition. Unusual unrestored silver dial, raised concentric rings with crosshair, polished silver baton hour markers and hands, the original crystal with omega logo to the center. The dial reminiscent of ripples in water radiating outwards. 34.5 mm diameter case excluding the crown, 40 mm from lug to lug. Clean bright 17 jewel Omega 600 calibre movement, adjusted to two positions, serial number 19275587 Running strongly keeping good time, up to 44 hours run time. Fitted with unworn Omega 18 mm textured black leather strap and Omega steel buckle, will fit a wrist size up to 190mm or 7,1/2" The case has not been re polished and shows signs of light use over the years with some light scratches. The hands are showing age related wear to the plated surface. Good unrestored, all original, vintage watch, to use or collect. A rare possibly unique vintage watch, not recently serviced, ideal for occasional use, not guaranteed, not waterproof or shockproof. Sold with good Omega red leatherette display box
