Description

An Antique George V Sterling silver nursery rhyme napkin ring which describes the tale of the "three blind mice". It is circular in form with scenes from the nursery rhyme depicting the farmer's wife, the running mice and the first few lines of the nursery rhyme. It has been well cared for over the years, would make a useful addition to a collection and would also make an ideal gift. It was hallmarked in Birmingham for 1911 by Henry Williamson and remains in excellent condition. Postage is complimentary with this silver nursery rhyme napkin ring.
