Description

A stunningly attractive mahogany card table. The proportions are lovely and whilst it looks good with the flaps down it looks magnificent with them up because of the figuring in the wood that continues across the top. The drawers are mahogany lined and look, as does the rest of the table, as though it has never been used. The faux back is an exact replica of the front only with dummy drawers. The reeded outswept legs terminate in pretty brass casters. It is all in absolutely perfect condition. The width below is with the flaps down. With the flaps raised it is 158cm wide.
