Description

A lovely large two-part pine cupboard with shelved interior. It has nicely panelled cupboard doors with arched detail and brass knobs. The shelves are adjustable and removable. It is in good condition and has been cleaned and lightly waxed to give a nice smooth polished finish. The interior is generally clean and tidy and the shelves are sturdy. There has been some repair work on one hinge but it is strong and sturdy now. There are signs of age and use, small minor knocks and marks and the very bottom part of the door strip is worn but nothing detrimental or untoward and it displays very nicely. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers.
