Description

For your consideration is this wonderfully stylish Art Deco manual gentleman's wrist watch by the US watch company Bulova. This watch is powered by a good-quality American-made BULOVA 21-jewel hand wound mechanical movement. The outside of the case is stamped 14K GOLD FILLED BULOVA, the serial number starting with '2' indicates on a Bulova of this era and with this particular movement, a manufacture date of 1942. The inside is signed BULOVA FIFTH AVE NEW YORK. Condition is excellent having not only been recently serviced but ultrasonically cleaned and fitted with a brand new leather strap. This watch is powered by a good-quality American-made BULOVA 21-jewel 7AP hand-wound mechanical movement. The 7AP was manufactured from 1936 to 1944 and features a Breguet hairspring, as used on other high-end watches such as Rolex and noted for aiding more consistent timekeeping throughout the duration of the wind. This particular 21-jewel movement would have been one of Bulova's top-of-the-range watches is stamped with the anchor date-code symbol for 1942. Dimensions: Width: 21mm, excluding the crown.
