Description

An unusual and possibly 'one off' 19th Century occasional table with a carved Bohemian, Gothic influenced base. A 19th Century replacement marble forms the top. The table is in great condition generally with one or two scuff marks as you would expect. This is a really unusual piece and would look fantastic in the home of someone looking for that individual and interesting table. Approximate measurements 71.5cm tall, 53cm diameter base and 60cm diameter top
