Description

For your consideration is this virtually mint condition Art Deco ladies combination compact dating to 1930's. This is a classic Art Deco compact features Powder, Rouge and Mirror Compact and is an absolute delight in every aspect and genuinely has appears never to have been used. This compact features a pretty pea green enamel lid with chrome accents; the back of the compact has a spider web machine-tooled finish to accent the octagonal shape of the compact. The case opens to a rouge compartment with a mirror in the lid that is behind a chrome toned Art Deco decorated cover. The loose powder compartment is in the lower section of the compact; and it has a hinged and latched recessed door to hold a puff. The original rouge is in untouched condition, while the loose powder well is empty. All hinges and the clasp work perfectly. Comes with an original chrome chain.
