Description

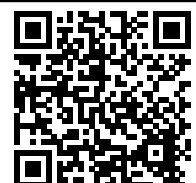

A decorative example of an early 1900's "Swagger" stick. The main body is Shark's vertebrae on a metal shaft. Horn spacers. The "pommel" end is of a natural material. The other end has a silver ferrule, which is probably not original....but works! Some wear and old repairs as to be expected. Please note that this item is NOT on view at the Honiton address. Please ring Russell on 07970 787218 for further information. Additional photographs and information available on request. FaceTime facility available. Please be aware that the item is old and antique and study any photographs to satisfy yourself as to its condition as much as possible. While we take all efforts to provide something that is fit for the use intended there may be various condition issues that are commensurate with age and considered part of its history, and are very subjective. However, you have legal rights and Consumer Contract Regulations (2014) still apply for "Distance Selling" if this is not a "face-to-face" purchase. The advertised price includes packing and postage within mainland U.K. with Royal Mail's 2nd Class Service. Special Delivery Tracked and Signed for Service can be requested...
