Description

For your consideration is this delightful early 1930's Art Deco porcelain Souvenir Beach powder jar /box. Depicting a flapper girl in beach wear in the fashion of the day sat on a crab. Beautifully hand painted with pearly finish to the shell. These souvenirs were sold in holiday destinations and often as a winnable gift from a local travelling fair. Today these souvenirs are highly collectible and sort after and range vastly in quality. This particular one is above average in it's design and craftsmanship. It's also a very nice size to display or use. This beautiful powder box is part of the half doll family and comes to you in great condition and free from damage and any restoration. FREE UK DELIVERY
