Description

A fine example of an antique solid silver bowl, most likely originally for sugar. It is stylish and good quality with a simple bulbous design and round foot and it has some engraved initials on one side. It weighs approximately 150g. It is hallmarked for Walker & Hall, Sheffield, 1914. It is in good condition for its age. There are no major damages and it displays well. There are some faint surface marks, light scratches and a few small dinks but nothing detrimental. It has been gently cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. Tracked UK delivery £5, rest of the world £20
