Description

A fine example of a small Victorian solid silver cream or milk jug with a slender design, scrolling handle and round foot. It is stylish and good quality and weighs approximately 76g. It is clearly hallmarked for London, 1899 however the maker's mark is partly worn so I can't quite make that out. It is in good condition for its age. There are no major damages and it displays beautifully. There are some faint surface marks and minor signs of age and use but nothing detrimental. It has been gently cleaned and polished and displays beautifully. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. Tracked UK delivery £5, rest of the world £20
