Description

A fine example of a Georgian Sterling Silver sugar sifter spoon. It has a distinctive shaped bowl with pretty pierced pattern. It has a simple handle with an engraved crest on the end. The spoon is good quality and made from a heavy gauge silver, weighing approximately 44g. It measures approximately 5 1/2" (14cm) long and the bowl is 2" (5cm) wide. It is fully hallmarked for Samuel Hayne & Dudley Cater, London, 1837. It is in excellent condition with a very clear hallmark. There are no damages and it displays beautifully. There are some faint surface scratches and a few light marks but nothing detrimental. It has been gently cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. Tracked UK delivery £5, rest of the world £20.
