Description

Early C19th Regency period mahogany armchair of good rich colour and proportions. Useful carver or armchair in excellent original strong condition. Scroll arms with a 'drop-in' seat pad covered in the apparently original oil-cloth fabric. Raised on reeded tapering forelegs with a shaped foot, a turned patera on the front corners. The back support panel with an incised reeded line, with a rounded profile lumbar bar. A period armchair of practical scale which could be used in multiple settings, would work particularly well as an office or desk chair. H (back) 33" H (seat) 17" D 18" W 20"
