Description

A stunning early 19th century brass mounted flame mahogany linen press of generous proportions. English, circa 1825, with French Directoire period style influences and possibly emanating from the Channel Islands. Of excellent construction in solid mahogany with attractive flame mahogany veneers and embellished with brass moldings and mounts throughout. The pair of doors (lockable, key supplied) open to reveal a fitted interior complete with the original slides/trays. A bar and hooks have also been fitted so that this space could be used for hanging of clothes if desired. The bottom section has a series of 2 short over 3 long, graduated drawers all fitted with their original solid mahogany bun handles. Locks working, key present. All sitting on a plinth base. This bold and impressive linen press is a real statement piece of the highest quality. Sympathetically refinished in our workshops to a very high standard and now offered for sale in excellent condition. With a rich colour and warm patina. Separates into 3 sections for ease of transport and installation. Dimensions: Width 145cms Depth 61cms Height 213cms
