Description

A nice example of an antique magnifying glass with a sterling silver handle. It is a stylish piece with a beautiful repoussé decorated handle and a nickel rim around the glass. It is clearly hallmarked for Levi & Salaman, Birmingham, 1901. It is in good condition for its age. There are signs of age and use but no major damages. The handle is slightly worn and rubbed and there is a small split at the end. There are some small dinks around the rim and a few surface scratches on the glass but overall it displays well and the magnification is good. It has been gently cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. Tracked UK delivery £5, rest of the world £20.
