Description

An Antique Edwardian Sterling silver centrepiece which consists of an ornate stand with pierced decoration, four side arms to hold the smaller dishes, a central section to support the main larger dish and resting on four elegant legs. Each of the removable dishes is oval in shape with wavy edged borders, pierced decoration to the bodies and resting on slightly raised oval bases. This silver centrepiece would make a suitable table feature and would be practical to use. It would look eye catching when displayed with fruit or chocolates. It was hallmarked in Sheffield for 1902 by James Dixon & Sons and weighs 57.30 troy ounces (1782 grams). The condition is excellent. Postage with insurance is offered within the price of this silver centrepiece.
