Description

What a lovely table this is, great condition and superb colour. It shuts to 18cms across when closed but can be used as a dining table if required if your space is limited. It has really well turned legs which terminate in the original brass cup castors with the white ceramic wheel and the quality of the timber is excellent. This 19th Century table can be used with one leaf down to go against a wall perhaps or in any configuration you may like. A very inexpensive table for this super quality and in this condition, one not to be missed for sure. Give us a call to discuss with pleasure 01565 874075
